2024 MARGARET POOLEY TRIBUTE RIESLING

$95 / $80.75

Margaret Pooley was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. The love, commitment, and care she demonstrated for her family and vineyard were truly selfless. She embodied strength, resilience, and nurturing qualities. This is her legacy, and this wine serves as our family's tribute to her.

TASTING NOTES

A youthful and vibrant Riesling, aromas loaded with lemongrass and citrus peel, accompanied by lime flesh and lemon pith. The palate reveals a textural richness with kiwi, gooseberry, apple sherbet and oyster shell salinity. This is a racy and delicate Riesling now, finishing with a flinty, mouth-watering snap. Enjoy its youthful energy today, or tuck it away to witness its inevitable evolution into a rich, golden-hued classic.

Named for the 'R.M.S. Oronsay' which brought the Pooley Family out from the UK in 1952, these wines are produced to show a true sense of place and as a tribute to where we come from.

2024 BUTCHER'S HILL 'ORONSAY' PINOT NOIR

$125 / $106.25

Savour the delicate aromas of red currant and sour cherry in this Pinot Noir, intertwined with subtle notes of fennel frond and vanilla. The palate offers a graceful expression of rose petal and espresso coffee, combined with rich dark chocolate and lightly confectioned raspberry. It's soft, integrated tannins and refreshing acidity create a harmonious texture, culminating in a long and nuanced finish. This wine is an elegant reflection of its terroir.

2024 COINDA VALE 'ORONSAY' PINOT NOIR

$125 / $106.25

This Pinot Noir opens with savoury aromas of white pepper and black licorice, lifted by a hint of rose petal. The palate is elegant and lively, showcasing a delicate interplay of damp earth and green herbaceous qualities alongside bitter orange and rosemary. Rich tannins provide structure, leading to a clean and persistent finish. It's a beautifully balanced wine that perfectly captures the cool-climate character of Tasmanian Pinot Noir.

2024 JACK DENIS POOLEY PINOT NOIR

$195 / $165.75

Named for Jack 'Denis' Pooley, passionate Pinot Noir consumer and founding member of the Hobart chapter of the Beefsteak & Burgundy Club. Jack was a driven businessman with a passion for perfection

TASTING NOTES

The flagship of Pooley Wines, a Pinot Noir of aromatic intensity and bold tannin structure. Displaying delicate aromas of vanilla, dried herbs, macerated cherries and bitter orange, the palate opens with a burst of juniper, blood orange, and kumquat, underpinned by cranberry, mulberry, and savoury preserved meat. This is a Pinot Noir defined by its architectural integrity. The persistent acidity and firm tannins suggest a wine that will evolve gracefully over the next decade, rewarding those with the patience to cellar it.
