DRINKS SERVICE

Saint Aidan Wines is a fully licensed venue.

Enjoy your own private bar in the Function Pavilion, stocked with your choice of our award-winning wines, a selection of beer and cider, spirits (on request), and non-alcoholic beverages including tea and coffee. We are happy to try and source your preferred range of beer, ciders, and spirits by prior consultation.

You can also have the option of pre reception drinks being served from our Cellar Door Bar prior to your reception commencing.

- Our bar staff will record drink consumption throughout the night. You can set your limit for the maximum spend, or have your guests pay as they go. Once your maximum is close to being reached, we will let you know so that you can either increase it or move to charging guests.
- If you are running a TAB, we will charge you by the bottle of wine, not by the glass.
- Spirits can be charged in the TAB, or have your guests pay for them.
- Please let us know what time you wish to start your TAB (before the ceremony, after the ceremony before the reception, or when the reception starts).

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Booking enquiries are held under no obligation for a 30-day period. If we have other enquiries/requests for the same date within the 30-day period, you will be contacted to confirm if you are still interested in holding the date before proceeding with other enquiries.
- A deposit of $1000 (or $500 for ceremony only) is required to secure your date.
- For Receptions, the $1000 deposit is held as bond and will be reimbursed back to you after the event. Additional charges will be deducted from the bond, including excessive cleaning fees, breakages, extra labour, and damage to Saint Aidan property. Your deposit will not be reimbursed if cancellation occurs.
- For weddings during our normal trading hours, we reserve the right to continue wine tastings and sales in our Cellar Door. Food service in our Restaurant will also continue as per normal.
- The Venue Hire charge includes all staffing up until midnight, after this time there will be an additional charge of $50 per 15 minutes per staff member (minimum 2 staff) until the venue is clear of guests.
- A 15% surcharge will apply on public holidays.
- All live Music after sundown is to be contained within our Function Pavilion footprint and be connected to our sound system, unless authorised by us otherwise by prior arrangement. Respect to our neighbours and surrounding environment is of our utmost importance and your cooperation is appreciated.
- Due to proximity of neighbours and legal noise requirements we will request that the penetrating sound (mainly Bass) be turned down on tracks/amplifiers after 10.30pm and turned off at midnight. Staff will be monitoring noise throughout the evening. We also request guests keep noise to a minimum on departure to respect our neighbours.
- Decorations and items left behind after the event are required to be collected by 10.30am the next day to allow reopening of the Cellar Door at 11am. Time can be negotiated if space and circumstance allow for storage and collection at a later time. We will store your items as safely as possible however, Saint Aidan Wines takes no responsibility for loss or damage of any items left on premise with us.
- Onsite Parking allows for 50 cars adjacent to the Cellar Door, with overflow available elsewhere on the property. Following RSA protocols, we are happy for guests who are unable to drive to leave their car on the gated property overnight. We ask that they be removed from the parking area by 11am to allow space for our other Cellar Door guests. If access is required prior to our opening time, please have your guest notify a staff member. St Aidan Cellar Door is secured and alarmed overnight.
- Naked flame candles are NOT PERMITTED without prior consultation. If use is permitted, they must be housed in a covered vessel. LED light candles are preferred. We are in a rural area and take safety very seriously. Confetti items only allowed with prior approval and then only bio-degradable items are to be used.
- Our experienced bar staff are all RSA qualified. At their discretion, they have the right to refuse service to anyone who is deemed to be intoxicated or engaging in antisocial behaviour. BYO Alcohol is not permitted and will be confiscated if found on premise.
- We hope you and your guests have an enjoyable, safe and memorable event with us at St Aidan Wines
